

Captain Arnie Charbonneau, MC Scholarship Application

The King's Own Calgary Regiment (RCAC) Regimental Funds Foundation has established the Captain Arnie Charbonneau, MC Scholarship after a generous endowment by the Charbonneau family. Arnie Charbonneau was an accomplished athlete, a member of two Grey Cup winning teams prior to his enrollment in the 14th Army Tank Regiment (The Calgary Regiment). He was awarded the Military Cross for his actions at the Battle of Motta Montecorvino in Italy during World War II.

In recognition of Captain Charbonneau's athletic and military achievements, an annual scholarship has been established to be awarded to an athlete of outstanding skill and demonstrated teamwork from the Regimental Family of the King's Own Calgary Regiment.

Who is Eligible?

- The applicant must have a direct connection to The King's Own Calgary Regiment, such as serving reservists, veteran of the Regiment, a serving cadet in a cadet corps affiliated with the Regiment, a direct descendant of a King's Own Calgary Regiment veteran, a volunteer with either the King's Own Calgary Regiment Museum, Regimental Association or Regimental Funds Foundation;
- The applicant must be a competitor in an organized sport or athletic league, association other competitive sports organization; and
- The applicant must be enrolled in full time in an accredited post-secondary institution.

Application Deadline

The deadline to apply is March 16, 2018.

Athletic Endorsement

Applicants must include letter of endorsement from a coach or official with an organized sport or athletic league, association other competitive sports organization that confirms the applicant's participation and demonstrated teamwork.

Enrollment and academic achievement

Applicants must be enrolled full-time in an accredited post-secondary institution. Full time is considered to be a minimum of three (3) credit earning courses. Should a recipient be placed on academic warning or receive too many failing grades, no further awards may be granted until the student has completed his/her educational requirements for the year. Awards are based on an 8 month academic year for universities or colleges and up to 36 weeks for technical institutes.

If a student withdraws from their academic year of studies, withdraws from individual courses or in any way fails to carry the course load that qualifies them as a full time student (a minimum of three credit courses), they are no longer eligible for the award and any monies issued must be returned in full to the Regimental Funds Foundation.
